Phuket, Thailand

Phuket; formerly known as Tha-Laang or Talang is one of the southern provinces (changwat) of Thailand. Neighboring provinces are (from north clockwise) Phang Nga and Krabi, but as Phuket is an island there are no land boundaries. The island is served by Phuket International Airport, located in the north of the island. The ph of "Phuket" is an aspirated hard "p", not a soft "f", so the name is pronounced (roughly) "Poo-get". The name Phuket is apparently derived from the word Bukit in Malay that means mountain or hill, as this is what the island appears like from a distance.

Before that its old name was Ta-lang (in Thai): The word is derived from the old Malay "Telong" which means "Cape", which is still in used for one of the main districts in the Phuket area.

Geography

Phuket is the biggest island in Thailand, located in the Andaman Sea, in southern Thailand. The island is mostly mountainous with a mountain range in the west of the island from the north to the south. The mountains of Phuket form the southern end of the Phuket mountain range, which ranges for 440 km from the Kra Isthmus. 70 % of the island is covered with forest. Phuket has several sandy beaches.

One of the most popular tourist areas on Phuket is Patong Beach on the central western coast, perhaps owing to the easy access to its wide and long beach. Most of Phuket's nightlife and its cheap shopping are located in Patong, and the area has become increasingly developed. Patong means, "the forest filled with banana leaves" in Thai

Other popular beaches are located south of Patong. In a counterclockwise direction these include Karon Beach, Kata Beach, Kata Beach Noi, and around the southern tip of the island, Nai Ham Beach. These areas are generally much less developed than Patong, and sought out by individuals, families and other groups with a preference for more relaxed and less crowded environs than Patong.

Scuba Cat Diving

Phuket, Thailand

Scuba Cat Diving offers the most complete career packages in Thailand. We give the opportunity to our candidates to have a wide view of the dive industry. Diving is everywhere.

Mike Stark the founder started diving in 1974 in the cold water of Canada and decided to come to Thailand in the early 90's. Since beginning operations in 1992 Scuba Cat Diving has become Phuket Thailand's most complete. Now, Scuba Cat Diving is known worldwide for training quality and costumer services and is a 5 Star CDC Centre awarded in 2007.

Sarah Kench, formerly a Senior Manager with HSBC in England, decided to change her life, came to Thailand in 1994 after spending several years diving in the cold water of England, and leading dive holidays to the Red Sea, Caribbean Islands, Dominican republic, Malaysia, Mexico, Indonesia and the Philippines, Upon starting work in the company she aspired to one day own Scuba Cat and this became a reality in 2007.

Scuba Cat Diving operates 2 liveboards in the Similans, Surin Islands, and all the best dive sites in the Andaman Sea. One daytrip boat to the best dive sites around Phuket and Koh Phi Phi Island.

Technical diving is also taught at Scuba Cat Diving, DSAT Tec Rec, Trimix, and rebreather courses

Scuba Cat Diving is a PADI 5 Star CDC Instructor Development Centre, we teach all the PADI Courses. PADI is the largest diving organization in the world. As a PADI professional diver you will find work in more than 180 countries in the world.

Boat Owner / Operators

Dive boats are an essential and extremely important element of your ocean experience and a dive centre operating its own vessels is better able to ensure your comfort, safety and enjoyment. Boat ownership is truly a mark of a superior, professional operation.

Scuba Cat Diving ownership has been involved in boating services in Phuket since 1990 and presently own and operate four dive vessels.

1. MV Scuba Adventure – Liveaboard
2. MV Scuba Cat - Liveaboard
3. MV Scuba Fun – Daytrip boat
4. MV Scuba Sport – Transfers/Daytrip

Free Dives/ Free liveaboard experience

Compared to other dive centers, Scuba Cat owns their own fleet of dive boats! Due to this, we offer our Career Candidates Liveaboard experience on one of Scuba Cat's own Liveaboard boats in the Andaman Sea and up to 200 Free Dives!!!

Environmental Issues

Protection and enhancement of the marine environment is a duty and obligation for all dive operators. They must show the way both by action, education and commitment in all activities.

Scuba Cat Diving has long led the Phuket dive community with active involvement in many environmental initiatives: sinking of Marla's Mystery creating Phuket's first artificial reef (Nov. 2000), this year celebrating the tenth anniversary being local coordinator for International Reef Clean-up day, Phuket's only active REEF CHECK team, active membership in both GREEN FINS and GO ECO projects and ongoing assistance with the Phuket Marine Biological Centre in conducting fish and coral surveys.

In addition, we are a PADI 5 Star CDC Centre and became Phuket's first National Geographic Dive Centre and Thailand's first Go Eco Operator. We don't just talk about it- we do it!

The International Ecotourism Society defines ecotourism as, "responsible travel to natural areas that conserves the environment and sustains the well-being of local people." This is important because tourism is the world's largest industry and is growing rapidly. This is good news for travel operators, but tourism can also hurt the natural ecosystem. Increased numbers of tourists require a larger infrastructure and can lead to serious pollution and degradation.

Scuba Cat Diving, Phuket Thailand is committed to environmentally responsible business practices and to providing our customers with dive experiences that enhance awareness of our local aquatic environment

Job Placement Service

We offer this service to our IDC and Divemaster candidates. The first step of your job search is to prepare a résumé, and then to place it on the Internet. There are lots of different sites specialized for diving and PADI has its own website dedicated for its members where you can find lots of job offers.

Directly at the end of the program we are going to help you set up your résumé, and look at which kind of job or position you are looking to apply for. There are lots of different techniques to finding a job. One of the most important things to find out is if you are going to fit into your desired position.

The Scuba Cat team has lots of different contacts around the world and in Thailand, so we will be pleased to give you all this information.

Finding a job in the dive industry is not very difficult. You just have to know what to do and how to do it. The Scuba Cat team is here to help you.

IE/IDC Pass Guarantee

Offered to all our IDC candidates, second IDC or extra training for free

Accommodation

Free Accommodation in air-conditioned private single room close to the dive center for all our candidates during the time of the IDC/IE.

Star Orchid Guesthouse is the alternative to expensive hotels in Patong Beach, Phuket Thailand. Offers large nicely decorated rooms, all rooms are fantastically well maintained, just as if they were brand new, and include air conditioning, color television, central hot water bathroom.

Well situated in a prime location, and almost anything you might desire is nearby. Many International restaurants are within just a few minutes walk; Thai, Italian, German, Swedish, Norwegian, and French to name but a few. The incredibly beautiful 'Patong Beach' is just less than 1 minute away!

There are a number of so-called 'cheap hotels' in Phuket; however, they do not have the same quality of rooms or the excellent services that the Star orchid Guesthouse provides.

A 12-Day expanded IDC

Although PADI requires an IDC to have a minimum duration of 7 days, we have found some extra presentations and workshops highly beneficial to our candidate success. To accommodate these extra presentations we have found a 12-day program more suitable.

Extra workshops include:

Ascents and Descents, Buoyancy control, Buddy Breathing, Controlled Emergency Swimming Ascent, Rescue exercises, students control and scenarios.

Planning, organizing, and scheduling all the PADI Courses in different environments.

With a relaxed, low stress 12 day IDC you can focus and elaborate on specific topics, review certain parts of the program, give extra time or lectures to our candidates.

The main focus of our program is to give the best knowledge to our candidates before they start teaching.

2 Remedial Days

We added these two extra days at the end of your program to give extra experience to our candidates for the IE and their future career.

The schedule for these two days:

1. Confined Water Presentation #5 and 6
2. Open water Presentation #5 and #6
3. Divemaster and Standards exams
4. Complete rescue workshop
5. Skills circuit
6. Any topic you want us to cover

PADI Instructor Development Course

The Instructor Development Course (IDC) is a 10-day training program, which teaches you how to instructor recreational scuba diving.

During the IDC you will use the latest teaching techniques, the complete system of PADI support materials, and will be continuously assessed on your teaching and presentation skills...

Scuba Cat has been a PADI Instructor Development Centre since 1997 and in 2007 a PDI 5 Star Career Development Centre, the highest rating for a dive centre. Classes for the instructor level programs are kept to sensible hours, to allow you to have a few hours of relaxation time each evening. Although PADI requires an IDC to have a minimum duration of 7 days, we have found some extra presentations and workshops highly beneficial to our candidate success. To accommodate these extra presentations we have found a 10-day program more suitable and the end of the IDC we have added 2 remedial days.

Extra workshops include:

Ascents and Descents, Buoyancy control, Buddy Breathing, Controlled Emergency Swimming Ascent, Rescue exercises, students control and scenarios.

Planning, organizing, and scheduling all the PADI Courses in different environments.

PADI Emergency First Responder and Care For Children Instructor

This program will show you how to teach PADI new first aid courses Emergency First Response Primary Care (CPR), Emergency First Response Secondary Care and Care For Children. As a PADI Instructor you will be teaching several courses that will require your students to have first aid and CPR training. By qualifying as an EFR Instructor, you will be able to teach your students yourself. Why run the risk of losing your customers to another PADI instructor?

The Emergency First Response Care for Children course is an innovative CPR, first aid and AED training course that teaches people how to provide emergency care for injured or ill children (ages one to eight) and infants less than one year old. During this course, you'll learn how to teach your students about medical emergencies that children face and how they differ from adult conditions. The curriculum also includes the importance of attending to basic emergency situations with children, the emotional aspects of caring for children, secondary care for children, and preventing common injuries and illnesses in children.

EFR Instructor mandatory from 01/03/09

PADI Emergency Oxygen Provider Instructor course

As dive professionals, you know how important oxygen is as a first aid measure for diving related accidents.

Remember to deliver oxygen you must certify.

This course can be easily integrated with the PADI EFR and the PADI Rescue course.

With this course, your students are allowed to deliver oxygen in a case of emergency.

Internship and Master Scuba Diver Trainer rating

Scuba Cat offers a unique work experience program. We give you the opportunities to team-teach with our senior instructor for a period from 4 to 6 weeks.

Observing a senior instructor conduct courses is as valuable as the IDC itself. You will team teach diving courses from beginner to Divemaster levels. The Work experience program begins by first observing different senior instructors conduct their diving courses, and then begin to teach independently.

A Senior Instructor will follow on your courses assessing you as well as providing you with tips and hints that will make your courses more fun and effective both for your students and you the Instructor.

By the end of the work experience you will have certified at least 25 students and be a Master Scuba Diver Trainer

PADI IDC Staff Instructor

As a seasoned PADI Instructor, you have wisdom and experience to share with up-and-coming PADI leaders. And, you know that continuing your education never ends. As an Instructor Development Course (IDC) Staff Instructor, you help bring up the next generation of PADI Instructors while gaining in-depth instructor-trainer knowledge. Because IDC Staff Instructors are an integral part of the PADI IDC, you set the stage for moving on to PADI Course Director as you present topics in the IDC and help shape PADI Divemasters and Assistant Instructors into PADI Open Water Instructors.

In addition to all the courses you can teach as a PADI Instructor, you can also:

- Teach PADI Assistant Instructor courses.
- Assist PADI Course Directors in conducting the PADI Instructor Development Course.
- Assist PADI Course Directors in conducting instructor-level continuing education
- Become EFR Instructor Trainer

Increase your employment opportunities

The Work experience program increases your chances of employment. Instructors who have completed the Work Experience have found employment on Phuket or other places in Thailand or anywhere around the world in a very short time. By team-teaching with several different instructors through the internship, you will have a large collection of different approaches to adapt to your own teaching style.

During your Work Experience program you will help you how to set up a resume and show you how to find a job.
